

About Us Wildsol is a fractional recruiting agency serving brands with a clear mission and values. With 20+ years in leadership hiring, people strategy, and organizational design, we operate as an embedded extension of your team, not an outside vendor.

We combine intuitive talent alignment with proven recruiting systems to ensure your hiring stays consistent, strategic, and deeply connected to your brand's values. Whether you need ongoing recruiting support, leadership placements, or a partner who can step in and run your hiring end-to-end, Wildsol is your on-call recruiting function.

How We're Different We don't drop in for one-off searches. We become your recruiting team, without having to hire us full-time. We don't do volume. We do resonance. At Wildsol, we believe in placing the right candidate, the first time. Our process goes beyond resumes and industry benchmarks to tap into the energy, presence, and potential of each candidate. By aligning values, leadership style, and vision, we reduce turnover, increase performance, and ensure your next hire is a catalyst for long-term growth. You'll never be handed a stack of resumes. You'll be introduced to deeply vetted, culture-aligned candidates, all handpicked for their potential to lead and inspire within your brand.

Instead of cycling through agencies, resume stacks, or misaligned candidates, you get a long-term partner who knows your brand, your culture, and your future vision. Our approach blends energetic alignment with high-touch recruiting strategy, ensuring every candidate is vetted for both competency and resonance.

With Wildsol, you receive:

- Proactive, ongoing pipeline building
- Hands-on hiring and search support
- Brand-aligned candidate communication
- A single point of contact who knows your voice
- A strategic partner invested in your long-term growth

No volume. No guesswork. No misalignment.
Just consistent, high-quality hiring support, exactly when you need it.
